2. The competition is played every two years (odd years) and shall take place when and where the CONCACAF Council determines.
3. The Competition is free of charge and open to all CONCACAF affiliated Member Associations. The Member Associations are required to participate with their “A” national team.
4. The Competition shall be played in two stages:
 - a. The Preliminary Competition (see Art. II) and the Final Competition (see Final Competition section);
 - b. The Preliminary Competition shall be played among the national teams of the Member Associations of each CONCACAF zone;
 - c. The matches in the Preliminary Competition shall be organized by the CONCACAF’s Unions;
 - d. CONCACAF shall be responsible for organizing, hosting and staging the Preliminary and Final Competition of the Gold Cup;
 - e. The Final Competition shall be played among the national teams of twelve (12) CONCACAF Member Associations.
5. The Competition serves as the qualifying tournament for the FIFA Confederations Cup (FCC) as follows:
 - If the same Member Association wins both the 2017 and 2019 editions of the Gold Cup, then they will automatically qualify for the FCC 2021;
 - If a different Member Association wins the Gold Cup 2019, then the CONCACAF representative for the FCC 2021 will be determined by a single playoff match between the winner of Gold Cup 2017 and the winner of Gold Cup 2019, time and place of such match to be determined.
 - Notwithstanding the aforementioned, only Member Associations affiliated to CONCACAF that are eligible to compete in the FCC 2021 shall be permitted to advance from this competition.
 - ❖ Should the winner of the 2017 or 2019 Gold Cup be a NON-FIFA member, then the second place shall advance. If the winner and second place teams are NON-FIFA members, then the third or fourth place team, if necessary shall advance.

6. Any rights that are not ceded by these Regulations to the Hosting Association or any participating Member Association or any other party shall exclusively belong to CONCACAF.
7. These Regulations for the 2017 CONCACAF Gold Cup™ (hereinafter: The Regulations) regulate the rights, duties and responsibilities of all taking part in the Competition. The Regulations, the CONCACAF Statutes and all other CONCACAF rules, regulations, circulars, directives and decisions in force shall apply and are binding on all participating Member Associations and their respective national teams and on all persons involved in the preparation, organization and hosting of the Competition.

II. PRELIMINARY COMPETITION

1. The organization of the Preliminary Competitions is assigned to the Unions in accordance with the CONCACAF Statutes.
2. The Unions are required to draw up regulations and competition format for the Preliminary Competitions and to submit them to CONCACAF for approval at least 6 months before the start of each Preliminary Competition.
3. Upon entering the Preliminary Competition, all Member Associations automatically undertake to accept that all administrative and refereeing matters related to such Preliminary Competition shall be dealt with by the respective Union in compliance with the submitted and approved regulations. CONCACAF will only intervene in matters in which a Union requests CONCACAF's assistance.

2. The Hosting Association is responsible for hosting the Final Competition. It may establish relations and conclude contracts with various entities in order to assist in the delivery of the Final Competition. The Hosting Association remains fully responsible for the delivery of the Final Competition, notwithstanding any such established relations and/or concluded contracts.
3. The Hosting Association and any and all established relations and/or concluded contracts shall be subject to the control of CONCACAF in terms of the delivery of the Final Competition. All CONCACAF decisions are final.

VI. ENTRIES FOR THE CONCACAF GOLD CUP™

1. “A” national teams of CONCACAF Member Associations have the right to participate in the Competition.

2. Notwithstanding the above provision, participation in the competition is both an honor and a responsibility. Therefore, CONCACAF Member Associations (except for the North Zone associations which must participate in every edition) have the obligation to participate in the Competition at least once every four years or shall be automatically suspended from CONCACAF. Upon suspension, a fine of ten thousand dollars ($10,000 USD) shall be paid to obtain re-admission, unless the CONCACAF Council accepts that failure to enter was due to force majeure.

VII. WITHDRAWALS, UNPLAYED MATCHES AND ABANDONED MATCHES

1. All Participating Member Associations undertake to play all of their matches until they are eliminated from the Competition.
2. Any Member Association that withdraws from official participation can be replaced by another Member Association. The Gold Cup Committee shall make the relevant decision.

4. If a team does not report for a match, except in cases of force majeure, or if it refuses to continue to play or leaves the pitch before the end of a match, the team shall be considered as having lost, and as a general rule, shall be excluded from further participation in the Competition, so that none of its matches will be deemed valid.
5. In addition to the above, the team in question shall pay compensation for any damages or losses suffered by CONCACAF, the hosting association and/or the other Participating Member Association(s), and shall forfeit any claim to financial remuneration from CONCACAF. Further measures may be taken by the Gold Cup Committee.

6. The relevant CONCACAF body shall determine the amount of damages for financial loss upon receipt of a substantiated and documented request from the Gold Cup Committee.
7. If the circumstances of withdrawal are sufficiently serious, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may also take whatever additional action is appropriate.
8. Furthermore, the Member Association in question may be disqualified from taking part in the next two editions of the Competition. Further measures may be taken by the CONCACAF Council, including the suspension of the Member Association concerned from any other CONCACAF competitions.
9. No appeals can be lodged against these decisions.
10. If a Participating Member Association withdraws or a match cannot be played or is abandoned as a result of force majeure, the Gold Cup Committee shall decide on the matter at its sole discretion and take whatever action is deemed necessary.

In particular, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may apply the sanctions described in these regulations, the CONCACAF Statutes and all other CONCACAF rules and regulations as well as the FIFA Disciplinary Code (and, upon its enforcement, in the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code).
2. In cases of infringement of these and all applicable regulations or unsporting behavior on the part of the participating national teams, their players and/or officials, or in any kind of incident, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee shall be empowered to:
 - a. Admonish, sanction, fine, suspend and/or disqualify the national teams, their players and/or officials.
 - b. Take action against any person(s) or Member Association(s) which may violate these Regulations, the Laws of the Game or the rules of Fair Play.
 - c. Prohibit violators from participating in a specific number of the CONCACAF-organized tournaments in which they might otherwise have participated.
3. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the CONCACAF Council any matter relating to an infringement of these Regulations as it sees fit whether for further sanction or any other reason.
4. The CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee decisions may be based upon written record or by conducting a hearing.
 - a. When making a decision, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may refer to the reports made by the referee, assistant referees, fourth official, match commissioners, referee inspector, general coordinator, technical delegate, security officer, diversity officer and/or any other CONCACAF staff or officials present. Such reports may be used as evidence but only in so far as the disciplinary aspects of the case being dealt with are concerned and shall not affect a referee's decision regarding facts connected with play.

- b. At its discretion, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee may convene a personal hearing and will decide any procedures to be followed. Decisions of such hearings shall only be valid if at least three members of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee are present.

The following decisions of the Disciplinary Committee shall not be subject to appeal:

- a. Cautions and censures imposed on Member Associations, players, officials and other persons.
 - b. Suspensions of up to two matches, or of up to two months, imposed on Member Associations, players, officials or any other persons.
 - c. Fines imposed on Member Associations (not exceeding $10,000 USD) or on players, officials or any other persons (not exceeding $3,500 USD).

 - c. A single caution received through the Quarter Finals of the Final Competition shall not be carried over to the Semi-Finals.
 - d. Two (2) cautions received in different games in the Group Stage and the Quarter Final Stage shall result in automatic suspension from the next game in the Competition.
 - e. Red card (direct or indirect) suspensions shall be served regardless of the stage of the Competition.
 - f. Unserved suspensions outstanding at the end of a team's participation in the Competition will be carried over to the next official match of the player's National Team per the FIFA Disciplinary Code and, upon its entry into force, the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code.

X. APPEALS COMMITTEE

1. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall hear appeals eligible to be lodged against decisions taken by the Disciplinary Committee.
2. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee may also apply the FIFA Disciplinary Code until the entry into force of the CONCACAF Disciplinary Code (when it will apply subsidiarity). In particular, the CONCACAF Appeals Committee may conduct any appeals procedures in accordance with the FIFA Disciplinary Code.
3. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee shall reach its decisions on the basis of the documents and other means of evidence contained in the Disciplinary Committee's file. The CONCACAF Appeals Committee may additionally, at its sole discretion, also consider additional evidence, including television and video recordings, which it considers relevant.
4. Decisions pronounced by the Appeals Committee are final and binding.

XI. MEDICAL and DOPING CONTROL

1. In order to protect players' health as well as to prevent players from experiencing sudden cardiac death during matches at the competition, each Participating Member Association shall ensure and confirm to CONCACAF that its players and officials undergo a pre-competition medical assessment (PCMA) prior to the start of the competition. The PCMA will include a full medical assessment as well as an echocardiogram and EKG to identify any cardiac abnormality. The medical assessment must be carried out between 270 days and 35 days prior to the start of the competition. CONCACAF will provide a PCMA form to all Participating Member Associations.
2. The duly licensed medical representative of each Participating Member Association (i.e. national team doctor) will be required to sign the PCMA declaration form certifying the accuracy of the results and confirming that the players and officials have passed the pre-competition medical assessment. The medical assessment form shall also include the signatures of the President and General Secretary of the Participating Member Association and shall be received by the CONCACAF General Secretariat at the latest seven (7) business days prior to the start of the Competition.
3. Further to the above, each Participating Member Association is required to have a duly licensed medical professional (i.e., a doctor) as part of their official delegation. Such doctor must be fully integrated and familiar with all medical aspects of the delegation and must remain with the delegation throughout the entire official period of the competition. The Match Officials (the Referees) will refer to such team doctor in all cases as required and necessary.

4. CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any injury sustained by any participating player or official. Equally, CONCACAF shall not be held liable for any incident (including death) linked to any injury or health problem(s) of any participating player or official.
5. As stated in these Regulations, each Participating Member Association shall be responsible throughout the Competition for providing health, travel and accident insurance cover for all the members of its delegation throughout the Competition. In addition, and in accordance with the FIFA Regulations on the Status and Transfer of Players, the club with which any participating player is registered shall be responsible for player's insurance coverage against illness and accident during the entire period of the player's release.
6. Failure to comply with the aforementioned provision shall be sanctioned by the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee.
7. In regards to non-traumatic loss of consciousness during a game, the referee will assume sudden cardiac failure until proven otherwise. The hand signal is the right hand fist against the chest. Such signal will indicate to the team doctor and the medical emergency team (stretcher team) to immediately institute comprehensive resuscitation that includes the use of a defibrillator (AED) and CPR. It is the responsibility of the organizing association to ensure that there is a properly functioning AED immediately at hand and that there is an ambulance with an access and egress plan.
8. During the match if there is a traumatic head injury and concussion to a player, and the player remains on the field of play, the referee shall stop play for as much as three minutes as injury time. The hand signal is the right fist on the top of the head. Such signal will indicate to the team doctor to enter the field to assess and manage the player. At this time a Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) will be administered. At the end of the three minutes, at the discretion of the team doctor, the player may be ready to return to play or immobilized appropriately and transported off the field using the standard protocol.
9. Further to the above, in regards to traumatic head injury and concussion, full return to play after a previous concussion must include no signs or symptoms of the previous head injury as well as an acceptable Sideline Concussion Assessment Test (SCAT) assessment.

10. Doping is the use of certain substances or methods capable of artificially enhancing the physical and/or mental performance of a player, with a view to improving athletic and/or mental performance. If there is medical need as defined by the player's doctor, then a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) application must be filed 21 days prior to competition for chronic conditions and as soon as possible for acute situations. The TUE approval system includes a designated administrative and functional committee that will review applications and certify the exemption as the committee defines.
11. Doping is strictly prohibited. The FIFA Anti-Doping Regulations, the FIFA Disciplinary Code and all other relevant FIFA as well as CONCACAF Regulations, circulars and directives shall apply to all CONCACAF competitions.
12. Every player may be subject to in-competition testing at the matches in which he competes and to out-of-competition testing at any time and place. Furthermore, reference is made to the FIFA Anti-Doping Control Regulations and the list of prohibited substances and methods per the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).
13. If, in accordance with the FIFA Anti-Doping Control Regulations, a player tests positive for the use of banned substances, the player shall be immediately declared ineligible from further participation in the competition and shall be subject to further sanctions from the CONCACAF Disciplinary Committee.

XII. PROTESTS

1. Protests, subject to the following provisions, are objections of any kind connected with matches of the Competition.
2. Protests against the eligibility of players chosen to take part in the Competition shall be submitted in writing to the CONCACAF General Secretariat by scan and e-mail or fax (such contact information to be provided in due course) by not later than 48 hours before the first match of the Competition. protests must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF.

4. Protests against any incidents that occur during a match shall be directed to the referee by the team captain immediately after the disputed incident and before play has resumed. The protest shall be confirmed in writing to the Match Commissioner or the CONCACAF General Coordinator at the match not later than two hours after the match in question (such contact information to be provided in due course). Such protests must be accompanied by a check in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500 USD) payable to CONCACAF.
5. Protests against the state of the pitch, the markings, the accessory equipment (goals, etc.) or the football shall be made in writing to the Referee before the start of the match. If the turf becomes unplayable during the match, the captain of the team concerned shall immediately inform the Referee in the presence of the opposing team's captain.
6. No protests may be lodged against the referee's decisions on points of fact connected with play, such decisions being final.
7. Member Associations may not bring disputes with CONCACAF before a Court of Justice. They shall undertake to submit any such disputes without reservation to the jurisdiction of the competent authority of CONCACAF and FIFA.
8. If an unfounded or irresponsible protest is lodged, a fine may be imposed.
9. The expenses, which arise from a protest, shall be charged by CONCACAF, either wholly or in part, to the losing party.

If, in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, extra time must be played as the result of a draw at the end of normal playing time, it shall always consist of two periods of 15 minutes each, with an interval of 5 minutes at the end of normal playing time, but not between the two periods of extra time.

9. At the end of the two periods of normal playing time (45 and 90 minutes), the referee shall indicate to the fourth official, orally or by gesturing with his hands, the number of minutes that he has decided to allow for time lost. 5. Weather and pitch conditions permitting, teams that are due to play a match in a stadium in which they have not previously played will be entitled to one 45-minute training session in that stadium on the day before the match. The times for such sessions will be set by CONCACAF and teams have to respect such times accordingly.
6. The teams that qualify for the final will be entitled to a 60-minute training session in the stadium, even if they have already played a match in that stadium, subject to final approval by CONCACAF depending on weather conditions, pitch quality and other factors.
7. If the pitch is not in good condition or the training session would negatively affect the state of the pitch, CONCACAF may shorten or cancel the training session and direct the teams only to inspect the pitch wearing training shoes.
8. First game teams will be entitled to warm up on the field of play before the match for up to 30 minutes. Second game teams will be entitled to up to 15 minutes. In all cases this is weather permitting and other conditions permitting.
9. Each stadium shall have sufficient space behind the goals to allow the players to warm up during the matches. A maximum of six (6) players shall warm up at the same time (with a maximum of two (2) officials). Only the goalkeeper may warm up with a ball. If there is not sufficient space behind the goals, both teams shall warm up in the designated area beside the substitute bench of Team B, behind assistant referee no. 1. 6. Further to the above, any injured or ill player who is removed from the start list will no longer be eligible to take part in the match, and thus cannot be selected as a substitute player at any time during the game. In accordance with Law 3 of the Laws of the Game, up to a maximum of three substitutions may still be made.
7. Although no longer eligible to play as a substitute, the injured or ill player who was removed from the start list may be seated on the substitutes' bench, and if so, would then also be eligible for doping control selection.

The colors of the numbers must contrast clearly with the main color of the shirts and shorts (light or dark or vice versa) and be legible from a distance for spectators in the stadium and television viewers in accordance with the FIFA Equipment Regulations.

For those cases in which 6 replacement players are brought in for the knockout stages, such new players will carry the numbers 24 through 29 respectively as applicable.
