They will face each other for the first time in the Nations League. Jamaica has a streak of 4 defeats in their last 5 encounters against Panama (4L-1W) in any competition; the only victory in that period was on June 30, 2019, in the Gold Cup, (1x0) with a goal by Darren Mattocks from a penalty in the 75th minute.

Jamaica has an ongoing streak of 8 consecutive games without a win in any competition against Panama (6L-2D). Throughout the series, the "Reggae Boyz" have only managed to defeat Panama 3 times: (1x0) in 2019 and the first victory in the series for Jamaica on November 5, 1969, in the Concacaf Tournament 1969, (1x2) with goals from David Largie 27' and Winston Hill 85' for Jamaica, and Rodrigo Espinoza 20' for Panama. Another victory was on June 7, 2009, in a friendly (3x2), with goals from Jermaine Johnson 44', Devon Hodges 50', and Keanmar Daley 90' for Jamaica, and Blas Pérez 12' and Luis Tejada 81' for Panama.

With the defeat against Mexico, Panama ended a streak of 7 consecutive games without defeat (6W-1D), one of the best streaks for the Panamanians in recent times. It also broke a streak of 4 consecutive victories they hadn't achieved since 2012 when they defeated Jamaica in 2 friendly matches (0x1) on May 27, 2012, with a goal by Luis Rentería 16', and (2x1) on June 1, 2012, with goals by Blas Pérez 34' and Luis Rentería 76', and for Jamaica Dane Richards 42', Honduras (0x2) Concacaf qualifiers for the FIFA World Cup Brazil 2014 with goals by Blas Pérez 65', 80', and against Cuba (1x0) Concacaf qualifiers for the FIFA World Cup Brazil 2014 with a goal by Nelson Barahona 57'.

The last encounter between these teams in any competition ended with a victory (3x2) for Panama over Jamaica on January 30, 2022, in the Concacaf qualifiers for the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022, with goals from Javain Brown own goal 43', Eric Davis 51', and Azmahar Ariano 68' for Panama and Michail Antonio penalty 5' and Andre Gray 86' for Jamaica.
